

The Balkans

March 2017 – Club Traditional

Upcoming Pickup Parties

Sunday, March 5th, 4-6pm
Tuesday, March 7th, 6-8pm

Sunday, April 2nd, 4-6pm
Tuesday, April 4th, 6-8pm

Cricova Blanc de Noirs

NV 90% Pinot Noir, 5% Merlot, 5% Cabernet Sauvignon
Moldova

The sparkling wine is vinified according to the classic French method, with maturation in bottles for at least three years. Elegant with fine bubbles, light yellow straw color, delicate aromas, nicely concentrated, precise citrus, bright and very long, with lingering chalkiness. $19.99

★ Silver Medal Award at the prestigious „Effervescent du Monde” competition in Paris.

Peshtera “Face to Face”

2014 Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Regent
Thracian Valley, Bulgaria

This wine has a beautiful and intense color. The aroma is spicy, with hints of mocha, black fruit, tobacco leaves, and dark chocolate. The palate is rich with good acidity and soft, sweet tannins. The finish is spicy and long lasting. $19.99

Tangra Bulgarian Feta

Sheep's Milk

Tangra Bulgarian Feta is made from the fresh milk of free-grazing ewes in the Rhodope Mountains. The name "Tangra" comes from ancient Bulgarian mythology, in which a deity named Tangra protected animals and promoted agriculture. The texture is moist, creamy and melting, and the flavor is lemony-tart, robust and delightfully sheepy, with enough salinity -- but not too much -- to ensure it can stand up to your favorite salad, spinach pie, pasta, pizza or lamb-burger. It's an outstanding feta for those who like their cheese to bite back. $9.99 lb

The Balkans

March 2017 – Club Red

© 2012 Encyclopædia Britannica, Inc.

Upcoming Pickup Parties

Sunday, March 5th, 4-6pm
Tuesday, March 7th, 6-8pm

Sunday, April 2nd, 4-6pm
Tuesday, April 4th, 6-8pm

Castra Rubra “Nimbus”

2013 Syrah
Thracian Valley, Bulgaria

Inky dark in the glass. The nose is subtle and complex with notes of chocolate and blackberry pie with cinnamon. Satin tannins and full bodied on the palate with excellent ripe fruits flavors. The finish is juicy and long with flavors of blackberries, plums and dark chocolate. $32.99

Cricova “Vin Virgin”

2011 Merlot
Cahul, Moldova

Minimal intervention and natural winemaking plus careful pruning and vineyard care are on prime display in this wine. It is distinguished by a remarkable structure, complexity, finesse, high extraction and a complex bouquet. Notes of currants, blueberries and plums perfectly complemented by notes of vanilla and noble oak, with velvety aged tannins. Unfined and unfiltered (some sediment presence is natural). $32.99

Tangra Bulgarian Feta

Sheep's Milk

Tangra Bulgarian Feta is made from the fresh milk of free-grazing ewes in the Rhodope Mountains. The name "Tangra" comes from ancient Bulgarian mythology, in which a deity named Tangra protected animals and promoted agriculture. The texture is moist, creamy and melting, and the flavor is lemony-tart, robust and delightfully sheepy, with enough salinity -- but not too much -- to ensure it can stand up to your favorite salad, spinach pie, pasta, pizza or lamb-burger. It's an outstanding feta for those who like their cheese to bite back. $9.99 lb