SCREWTOP WINE CLUB JULY 2020

Dear wine club member, thank you so much for supporting screwtop! Your continued membership in our club helps us pay our amazing staff and pump much needed revenue back into our local economy. When you support small businesses you support your own community, and that's a win win for everyone! For July, I decided to select wines from the U.S.A. And even though we all love California wines, the regions selected this month are filled with talented winemakers and beautiful terroir as well. I really hope you enjoy them.

- Wendy Buckley, Chief Executive Wino

With an aroma of butter and fresh grass, Grafton One-Year Cheddar is mellow yet balanced, with aromas of fresh apples and butter. Flavors start off bright and lemony, evolving into a rich and nutty finish that is both comforting and satisfying.

tasting notes

The nose is full of rich notes of black currant and black cherry, fresh brewed coffee, a slight hint of vanilla, and a little bit of spiciness. The entry is nice and round, with a rich mid-palate throughout. The mouth is full of ripe black fruit notes, some spiciness, and a touch of herbaceousness. $19.99

ADVENTURER CLUB

Early Mountain Eluvium Red

varietals: 72% Merlot, 26% Petit Verdot, 2% Cabernet Sauvignon region: Madison, VA

tasting notes

On the nose the fruits are dark and layered with plum, black cherry and blackberry accentuated by mint, cedar and wood spice. On the palate the flavors echo the aromas; Eluvium is structured and layered with ample and persistent tannin. On release it is showing its youth and will continue to soften and develop as it ages in bottle. $47.99

Amavi

Appealing aromas of dark roasted coffee, café au lait, plum and barrel spice lead to elegant fruit flavors that display a charming sense of freshness. It's a pretty expression of the variety, with a lovely sense of balance. $33.99
