SCREWTOP WINE CLUB SEPT 2020

VLASKAAS

milk: Cow
region: Netherlands

tasting notes

Vlaskaas was historically made only once a year, during the flax harvest festival, but as festival traditions fell away, the recipe was buried. Thankfully, in 2004, a review of Beemster's past cheeses led to its rediscovery. Vlaskaas was obviously too good to make just once a year and is now available year-round. It's buttery and semi-soft with unique sweet-milk flavor, notes of almond, and a touch of sharpness that adds depth. $7.99 5.3oz

EXPLORER CLUB

SKINNER

region: El Dorado, CA

tasting notes

The aromatics are seemingly boundless with first impressions of crushed rock and white flowers, giving way to underpinnings of honeysuckle, stone fruit and sandalwood. Opening with zippy, perfumed summer fruit the midpalate is pleasingly covered with sensual weight and phenolic tension. The finish is long and elevated, leaving a lingering impression that is poised, vivacious and lightheartedly seductive. $21.99

UNSI

region: Navarra, Spain

tasting notes

This wine exudes aromas of vanilla and strawberries, brambles and violets, alongside a hint of scrubland which evokes memories of the woodlands surrounding the vines. It is juicy, fresh, and full-bodied in the mouth; an exceptionally rounded wine with a sweet hint thanks, in part, to its time spent ageing in wood, and, in part, to the character of the Grenache. $19.99

ADVENTURER CLUB

FURVUS

region: Montsant, Spain

tasting notes

Aromas of wild berries, ripe blueberries, and red plum. Notes of red pepper, lavender, and blood orange with a touch of thyme and resin. Smooth yet powerful and concentrated on the palate. Flavors of ripe red cranberries and spices with a hint of mineral on the finish. $33.99

LAS COMBES

region: Minervois, France

tasting notes

The nose is elegant, with notes of ripe and tangy fruit (pomegranate, cherry, black currant) and roasted coffee beans. The medium-bodied mouthfeel seduces by its freshness, its roundness, its juicy and vibrant character, its tension in the generously fruity finish.

 ORGANIC $31.99
