

12 DAYS OF WINO

WINE #3 - GRUET SPARKLING ROSE'

CHRISTMAS

GRUET

Our Vineyards

With high elevation, sandy loam soils and sweeping winds to naturally keep away pests and thin the canopy for greater flavors, New Mexico's desert landscape proved the ideal starting ground for Gruet!

Gruet Vineyard in Truth or Consequences

Elevation: 4,245 ft

75 Acres

Luna Rossa Vineyard in Deming

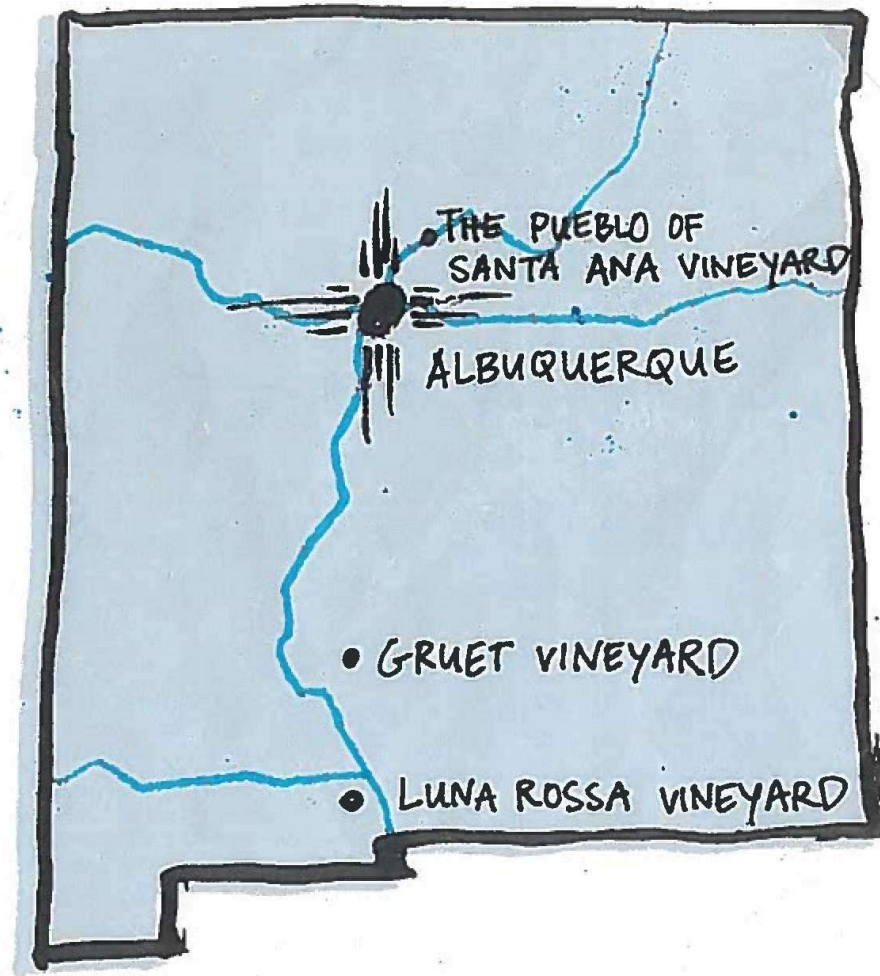

Elevation: 4,335 ft

300 Acres

Tamaya Vineyard in Santa Ana Pueblo

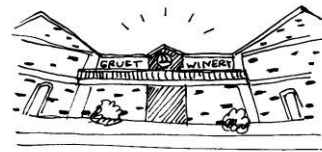

Elevation: 5,110 ft

30 Acres

The Gruet Through the Years...

- 1952 - Gilbert Gruet cultivates his first vineyards in Bethon, France, on land given to him by his father
- 1967 - Gilbert Gruet establishes Gruet et Fils, elevating Bethon as a choice site for Chardonnay in Champagne
- 1981 – Gilbert starts exploring the U.S
- 1984 - The younger Gruets move to New Mexico. Visiting family members assist during planting and later, harvest.
- 1987 - Gruet Winery's first harvest.
- 1989 - The first releases of Gruet wine in the U.S. debut (1987 Brut and Blanc de Noirs, New Mexico)
- 1993 - Gruet Winery's new Albuquerque facility opens on its own property, following years of renting another site
- 2004 - Gruet wins the Yarden Trophy at the International Wine & Spirits Competition in London for its 1997 Blanc de Blancs
- 2011 - Gruet earns a #43 spot on Wine Spectator's Top 100 Wines of the World list for its NV Blanc de Noirs
- 2014 - The Tamaya Vineyard is planted and a partnership with the Pueblo of Santa Ana begins
- 2016 - Gruet opens a tasting room in Santa Fe at the iconic Hotel St. Francis
- 2019 - Gruet celebrates the 30th Anniversary of its first domestic wine release

Brut Rose NV

A beautiful garnet in color, this Rosé has a number of aromatics from simple floral notes to mouth watering strawberry all while maintaining a zesty acidity and delicate finish.

100% Pinot Noir

Aged en tirage for a minimum of 24 months

- Top 100 Values, Wine Spectator (12/31/18)
- 93 points, Best Wines of 2019, Beverage Dynamics (12/19)
- 92 points, Cheers (8/21/17)
- 88 points, Best Buy, Wine Spectator (6/15/15)
- 88 points, Best Buy, Wine & Spirits (6/15/15)