PINOT CLUB #1

Heinrich Hartl

Vanilla, kirsch and alluring smokiness surround lovely notions of ripe, red cherry. The palate then emphasizes the purity of that lifted, tart, vivid red cherry and makes it soar, carried by the aromatic, almost floral oak. This is warm but sinuous, medium-bodied but wonderfully translucent. Powerful but unforced. A very honest and disarming Pinot.

Retail $33.99

Vintage: 2017

Varietal: Pinot Noir

Appellation: Thermenregion

Anton Bauer

Slight but distinct hints of vanilla and cinnamon play on the ripe red cherry nose. The palate then adds alluring hints of white pepper to a lovely, fresh, translucent, aromatic body. A wine that makes a virtue of Pinot's inherent lightness without being light. This is elegant, playful, spicy and aromatic and therefore utterly seductive.

MONTHLY CHEESE PAIRING

Black Knight Tilsit

Cow's Milk (Pasteurized)
Named after a town in East Prussia, Tilsit was invented by homesick Dutch immigrants trying to recreate Gouda. In the process they created a brand new cheese they named Tilsit! Tilsit is made from partially-skimmed pasteurized cows' milk and is semi-firm with a springy, crumbly texture, dotted with irregularly spaced tiny holes. Black Knight's flavor is mild and lactic with bright, fruity notes and a clean, milky finish. This cheese will melt nicely. $6.99 Retail (.33 lb)

ADVENTURER CLUB #1

Hilinger Leithaberg

In the glass, this single site wine is deep ruby red with a short, violet rim. The nose is fruity with reminiscences of blackberries, black cherries and ripe strawberries. This fruity structure is supported by the spicy scent of Mediterranean herbs, dark pepper, nutmeg and cloves. The clear mineral note reflects the origin. The spice, herbs and berry aromas are also evident on the palate, where the wine appears with a firm structure, minerality and underlaid roasted aromas. Rich tannins envelop the compact body. The complexity of the single site wine is reflected in the very long finish with freshness.
